

Understanding and Supporting Muslim Students in Higher Education

This 2- hour presentation will introduce participants to the history and modern practices of Islam. We will look at key issues facing Muslim students in higher education today including barriers and discrimination. We will end by considering practical suggestions for creating an inclusive community for Muslim students.