

Fall 2020 Session Proposals : Entry # 594Working Session Title

Helping Students Transition to New Majors

Presentation description (short paragraph)

In June 2020, Transition Advisors joined the Academic and Career Exploration team in the Center for Career Development. Join us for a discussion about the new blended role of Transition Advisors and Career Counselors to provide students with assistance in their major and career exploration process, as well as how and when to refer. We will identify and explain strategies for engaging students in the exploration/parallel planning process as they are transitioning out of their intended major. Additionally, we will discuss the Center for Career Development's resources for independent major/career exploration and research.

Learning Outcomes (2-5)

- Learn how the Transition Advisors integrated with the Career Counselors to provide enhanced services for students in transition between majors
- Develop an understanding of the Center for Career Development's web resources for major/career exploration and research.
- Understand Advising strategies for co-creating parallel plans with students in transition.
